

WHITE WOOD

White Wood is a living monument to peace which will develop over 300 years. As a site of reflection, it was created by artist Caroline Wendling and the community of Huntly with oaks from Germany, stones from France and over 1500 native Scottish plants.

